NEW YORK, NY - The Pi Kappa Omega Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority held its 2003 "Affordable housing a call to action" Masquerade Ball Fundraiser recently at the Synod House on the grounds of St. John the divine Cathedral. The highlight of the event was the presentation of the 2003 Community Trailblazer awards followed by a sit down dinner. Pi Kappa Omega welcomed five honorees and some 150 guests from the New York City community including key political and community leaders.

Pi Kappa Omega Chapter honored outstanding women who have made significant contributions in the area of affordable housing with their Pi Kappa Omega 2003 Community Trail Blazer Award. The 2003 honorees included The Honorable C. Virginia Fields, Manhattan Borough President; Lucille McEwen President/ CEO H.C.C.I., Rev. Dr. Elaine Flake, Co-Pastor the Greater Allen Cathedral of New York, Sheena Wright President/ CEO Abyssinian Development Corp., and Anne Marie Hendrickson Assistant Commissioner of NYC Dept. of Housing Preservation.

The awards ceremony was held during their our Masquerade Ball at The Synod House/ The Church of St. John the Divine located at 1047 Amsterdam Avenue in Manhattan, New York. Proceeds from The Masquerade Ball will benefit the Pi Kappa Omega's community service programs Charitable Trust Fund used for existing programs in the Harlem community and college scholarships, and contributions to non-profit organizations with affordable housing initiatives.
